

Looking for qualified administrators of the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator®?

YOU JUST FOUND THEM...

LSA PARTNERSSM

Based on the work of Carl Jung, the MBTI® instrument has been used for over 50 years around the world in understanding individual differences and uncovering new ways to work and interact with others. As qualified administrators of the MBTI®, LSA PartnersSM can facilitate an interactive group workshop or use the instrument as a developmental tool in one-on-one coaching.

Add another dimension to your team buildings or group workshops

- ❑ Help your team members to understand their individual differences and how to leverage those differences for improved harmony and productivity
- ❑ Through the MBTI®, your team members will discover how each type processes data, makes decisions, and interacts with the outside world
- ❑ Understanding how to leverage the diversity of the team will bridge the communication gap, creating mutual respect for one another
- ❑ Alone or combined with other activities, the MBTI® enhances the team building or workshop, adding an element of fun while learning relevant information about the team's dynamics

Utilize the MBTI® to deliver meaningful and personal management and executive coaching

- LSA PartnersSM facilitators will use the MBTI® to assist the manager or executive in understanding the dynamics of his or her own personality type to leverage strengths, overcome challenges, and optimize performance
- The MBTI® tool enables your managers and executives to maximize the benefits of his or her individual coaching sessions by promoting the understanding of the innate preferences that drive behavior while learning more effective techniques for leading people

The LSA PartnersSM facilitators take a unique and personalized approach to applying the MBTI® to ensure that the participants understand their personality type, ensuring that they can leverage their strengths, overcome their challenges, minimize conflict, and optimize their performance.
